^{Took} A rather dull damp day up 7.45. Dr Ripman called to Mr C. at 9.0. Found her better and pleased her by prescribing for her mouth irritation. C. had a talk with Roland Cant who accep-ed Mme Salario for Heemskerk Cant is now with Michael Joseph. Says novels do not sell now as they used to.
Slight itching in my throat took Thomas pastilles. Out at got Chela Paxton, Taffels, Jacq Liss - Dutch painter Spierck Chela with Jeroen. Gave Smyth for 1957 diary. Gift - publications with Cecily to the photo. K graphed. Out home 1.30. C pleased my Taffels. 2.35. 8 a yard nice lunch. Son Stuart too well. Rested and when I woke at 5, realized that I had a cold and needed treatment. So I bed and started pills. Tally Damas, ravel, pancy, Hampton Pelle came out. on train

Thursday, January 3

Slept well. Up at 3 and bathed and drank glass of hot water, and then two glasses as usual before breakfast at 9.30. Cold and sore throat soon under control. E. called up by French legation. M.
Haudanau wants to interview her for Radio Match. Read John Deane and J. G. J.
Pleasant day with sun, wind in the Park. Woodward has now come down with our cold but old fashioned remedy don't give in and get over colds.
Lunch. Still must wait to be out and escape. Radio Tex 5 w.
M. Haudanau + young J. H. H. from B. H. interviewed C. H. H. this to come to lunch. Went morning. Called off lunch with B. H. H. H. H. H. H. military. P. H. H. H. H. H. excellence of his H. H. H. H. with toast and grapes. Left dinner. Read John Deane Haudanau which became dramatic into something like insect

Peter came to dinner.

Friday, January 4

Peter came to dinner.
Friday, January 4
Up at 7.15. Made myself a glass of hot water that I sipped and then went back to rest - aft. days. Up again at 8.45 and had another glass of hot water. Showered. Had an abbreviated bath and washed breakfast of orange juice and crackers toast with butter on it and tea. Cooked at J. Mearns. W. dairy for yesterday and by that time felt too tired to do anything but make woodcocks. Call seeing bills. Mr. Hargreaves came and photographed me. He Paris M. etc.
Had then he got John J. man from B. B. C. That felt up to Lynch and French milk phone B. B. C. interview. I had lunch with a bit of burning cups flower & grapes. Met old friend day I looked at times as went to rest at 3. Slept up to 4.15 and had glasses of hot water. Then worked on John Dumas back by Hampton. C. come back after having great fun with her French admirer at lunch and explanations at Mermaid's with Gert & Michel. Fall looked so snow G. and shut the door. Tea Full manuscript was back week. Saturday, January 5th 1885 Naileed came to help Wadsworth. I had been fast in bed and then dressed as usual. Worked in my room on my Quaker Key circles preparing them for sitting the pulleys in the center of Q. waited in sitting room and finally after twelve o'clock Mr. Haneland arrived with the little man from the French B. B. C. I did not want to see them but consented to please Q. on understanding that Mr. B. B. C. man would not photograph me as he wanted to do. I shook hands and took him to lift and Q. went to put on her hat to go to luncheon with Beadlington Behrens. I had luncheon at home and went to rest soon after. Slept till nearly seven up & tea. Q. up to. Had had lunch. Along with turns out to be a rather fractious Jew. Rich but not "esquemed" by his Russian wife.

Sunday, January 6

Up 8.45 Did not have woodward no better.
Made my bed to relieve her and helped with the breakfast things. Spent morning reading and copying reports to Walter Drexler on the bank near Hampton. Lovely sunny day out for brief walk in garden but most of it in shadow.
Sherry before luncheon.
Woodward went to bed directly after luncheon and did not emerge again. Wrote all afternoon on Taker Drexler book and wrote to him.
Did practically all of the sewing for supper. @ I listened to Radio. Peter went to Amherst yesterday to shoot ducks and spent night in Hunke. @ planning a cocktail party for her French friends et al. worked on accounts. To bed before 12

Epiphany

Up 7.30 Pleasant sunny day Washed Monday, January 7 seems a little better but not yet fit for regular work. T. L. Carpenter, my renewed relations will not be ready for a few days, perhaps Wed P. M. C. out for his permanent work. Spent morning drawing yellow bodies against Creek City surrounding relations. My wife left with John came back from from 2 a.m. day. W. Westman Bank for statement to date W. John H. asking Rude's name and saying she doesn't. Perhaps told his wife out and told John Dremas T's. back to him registered Luph Pakenham Arms. To Footman and told to return superfluous magnon @ pieces without success Bought Gun for. To St Giles and got 2 cases whole-meal Horn C. back from his permanent work. She dresses against a big cocktail party at present Coke came from Mrs. Hunt but Mrs. Edwards and Woodhead say they will stay till Feb. 1. Dated Tues. Got out drunk for dinner Pete & Morris came. She brought

Done

wonderful number of soldiers up 7.45. Wanda not alters Tuesday, January 8 and looks old and ill. Told her to go to bed and do no work today.

Tel. Barry for wires. Tel. Wanda that I would pay for her baggy for G. but only if she asked people G. did not know and not the old friends and I signed not comb. Call for young Dances with spray brush for $300 which G. might give Nancy p.c. to lunch. I left it for G. to consider. I showed him the spray that G. bought from Digby Jones as old friends and told him that his uncle had said it was made in last ten years and that I did not like this. G. out to lunch with Mary Parker. I had quick lunch in Reveries snack and then hair cut. To Green's for dental powder left inscribed Salario at Darling J. Pub. for John Mathias. Had G. + rest. Got tea. Dinner Dick Trafford and talked about Salario and William Johnson Carey up 8.30 after good night sleep found Wednesday, January 9 that my head had gone slightly to my chest and I felt ill.

Wednesday next I went out for Dr. Chapman for her.
C. out to her dentist. Nice dark day. I sat by electric fire in dining room and interfered to anti-litter but felt too tired so I just looked at Times and News. Mr.
Edwards brought me a glass of hot milk and some tablets for C. and bulges and grapes for C. and grapes. Tel. C. to see my pictures photographs by post. Dr. Chapman let her come at 3.30. After lunch.
C. came home. I left it to her to see Chapman and I went to bed 3.45 and slept till 7. Chapman found C. was not seriously ill. No temperature. C. of tea and milk and some fruit and grapes for C. and grapes. C. of tea and milk Radio news Edwards was reasons of health. Stretched Felt better and got up about 8 o'clock Thursday, January 10 sunny day. W. Tell about my Canadian investments @ Oak B- Ruth Draper, memorial services at St. Mark's in the Full Church full. Joyce brought told C. that Ruth had afternoon and evening performances on Saturday and then about New York to see the circumstances for the New Year, and then great home and died in her sleep. C. saw Virginia Thuermer, Lady M. M. Loo and others. I worked on my Creek part in the darkness of the dining room. Woodward sat up and J. M. Edwards gave me a light lunch in the dining room. C. came home before 4 with the news that Har-Macmillan is Prime Minister to that. It is 60% quicker on Creek part - getting pictures graphs. Made drinks for C. but had nothing myself. There is alcohol may be easier at my constant talk also. Good dinner. Wrote all evening & see records.

Doubtful if tall ones were in a success inside that up 3. Misty morning with sun later. Friday, January 11. Statement from Bank Credit balance Hilary Lee's sittings begin at 3.30. W. Deary felt yesterday. Throbbled up and about as usual but still feels ill from her cold.

After luncheon I went out and got some green murelids at Ryman's and complained for C. to Mr. Gray for Dr. Davis's charge for cleaning murelids and changing of net curtains.
Got to bed. Up and to at 6. Skated at papers and then packed up a sample
